The Young Patronesses of the Opera (YPO) is celebrating its 68th year of supporting and promoting music and opera education programs for children in South Florida. We would very much appreciate your sponsorship/support of our major fundraising Gala "Rendezvous at the Paris Opera - The Pink Diamond Affair" which will be held on Saturday, November 4, 2023 at the Ritz Carlton in Coconut Grove. I have attached a copy of our sponsorship package.

As a non-profit organization, YPO fulfills its mission through numerous education programs. Our In-School Opera brings professional, mini-opera performances to over 20,000 elementary school children annually, including to Title 1 schools. We present a Girl Scout Workshop that provides 120 Girl Scouts the opportunity to learn about music and careers in the performing arts and earn their opera badge each year. We also sponsor an annual Teacher's Workshop that supports and educates the wonderful and hard working Miami-Dade music teachers about ways to incorporate opera in the classroom. We publish music education materials for elementary school students that meet Florida's teaching standards, in furtherance of our mission. This year we are also adding an All Access Project to expand our programs to autistic and neuro-diverse children.

This program year in April, YPO will also host our renown international 2024 Voice Competition whose aspiring young winners go on to perform with great opera companies around the world.

On behalf of YPO, I thank you for considering this request to help us continue our work bringing the joy of music to children and the South Florida community.

Sincerely,

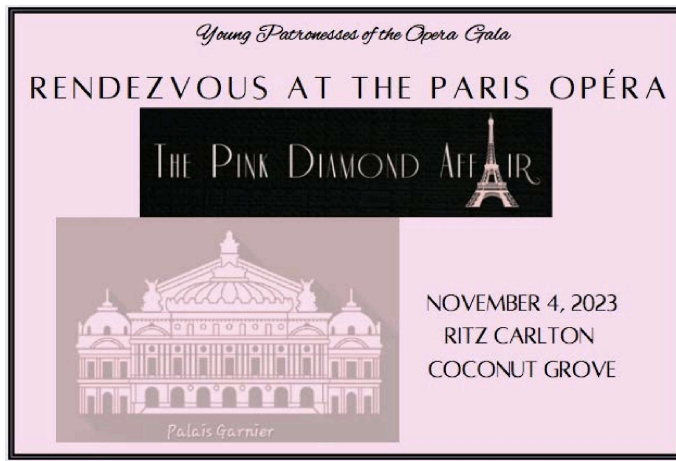

Lisa Hogan, YPO President
